NATIONAL ADVENTURE INSTITUTE,
SNOWVIEW, KURSEONG, DARJEELING, WEST BENGAL
ESTABLISHED IN COLLABORATION WITH HIMALAYAN MOUNTAINEERING INSTITUTE (HMI) DARJEELING

INSTITUTE

The Bharat Scouts and Guides has established National Adventure institute at Snow View, Kurseong, Darjeeling to provide low cost adventure to the youth of the country. The institute is committed to the promotion of adventure amongst the youth. This National Adventure Institute of Bharat Scouts and Guides is established in the year 2021 and has been conducting adventure programs starting from April, 2021 onwards and has opened avenues to enjoy nature through adventure activities not only to the members of the Bharat Scouts and Guides but also to the non-uniformed youth from various parts of the country.

KURSEONG, DARJEELING

Kurseong Municipality established in the year 1879, Kurseong is a historical town having rich heritage. Kurseong is a hill municipality and was declared municipality town before subdivision formation.

Kurseong is a perfect place for people who want to derive the pleasures of being in an alpine surrounding without worrying about higher altitudes and bone-chilling cold weather. Kurseong does not suffer from severe winters and a healthy, comfortable climate is prevalent throughout the year except the monsoon season. It rains non-stop in the rainy season; in fact, Kurseong receives the highest amount of rainfall after 'Cherrapunjee' in Meghalaya. Ironically, such heavy amount of rainfall is ideal for white orchids that adorn the hill-slopes of Kurseong in abundance. The natural beauty of Kurseong thrives because of the generosity of the rain-gods.

ADVENTURE WITH SIGHT SEEING PLEASURE

Kurseong is developing as a quiet hill station. Tea gardens include Castleton, Makaibarie, Ambotia and Goomtee. These tea gardens also offer 'bed and breakfast' type accommodation in workers quarters, etc. Kurseong was a rest town and medical town during the British days, with a TB Sanatorium and various villas and bungalows.

The toy train station is the nucleus of the town. The train tracks run through the length of the town.

Religious sites

1. The Ambhotia Shiva Temple.
2. Giddapahar Durga Mata Mandir.
3. Jagdish Mandir on Bank Road (on way to the Eagle's Craig). This temple has very old idols (almost 300 years old) of Lord Jagannath.
4. St. Paulseak Church on Hill Cart Road, Near St. Joshephs School.
5. Buddhist Gompa in Monteviot.
6. Buddhist Gompa in Dowhill Road
7. Juma Mosque in Hat Bazaar

Natural sites

1. Eagle's Craig.
2. Deer Park - Now known as DowHill Park, on the DowHill Road.
3. The Kholas (Water Falls-Springs) like Whistle Khola (named by the Britishers, as there is a bend & the toy train whistles when passing through it.)

Museums: 1. Netaji Subhas Chandra Bose Museum and N S C Bose Institute of Asiatic Studies, hosted in the house of his elder brother, Sarat Chandra Bose, are situated at the Giddhapahar Area. Netaji was interned in this house by the British Govt. in the late thirties. The house now displays photocopies of the exchange of letters between Netaji and his would be wife, Ms. Emilie, many rare photographs of his Indian National Army (INA), other memorabilia of the Indian Freedom Movement and a few personal belongings of Netaji and the Bose Family.

Other Sites

1. Chimney: A walk or ride through the forest of Cryptomaria Japonica on the road, now called Aranya Sarani, leads to the vast open meadows at Chimney. The curious name of the place is reminiscent of the days, when there was a Bungalow here on the only road (Old Military Road) leading to Darjeeling. A long, dilapidated chimney, standing all alone, is the only remnant of the bungalow now.
